DEUTERONOMY

These words

29 you God who brought you out of Egypt out of the land of slaves

30 other gods before (C) me

31 take you yourself an idol on the form of anything on heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below 32 You shall not worship them you (C) the LORD your God are a jealous God you show the children you the sin of the fathers to the children of those who hate me 33 but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my command

34 in the name of the LORD your God for the LORD will not be angry with those who misuse his name

35 the day by keeping it holy 36 Six days you shall labor and do all your work 37 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD you shall not do any work whether you are a plowman or sower or a shepherd or one who keeps animals

38 for in six days the LORD made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them but he rested on the seventh day therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy
