

Chapter Six

The consequences of sin

1. How would you respond to the suggestion that sin is not really all that serious?

2. Why does sin have such a catastrophic effect on our relationship with God?

3. Why is slavery such an appropriate image to use when thinking about the effect our sin has on us?

4. How might we justify the assertion that sin is the root cause of all the problems we have in our relationships with other people?
